1. ADVENTURE WEEK IN ANTALYA In July, my older brother Emir and I joined an adventure camp near Köprülü Canyon. On the first day, we went rafting on the river. Our instructor, Hande, gave us helmets and life jackets and explained the safety rules. The water was cold, but it was thrilling! On the second day, we tried rock climbing. Emir is more adventurous than me, so he climbed to the top in twenty minutes. I was too scared and stopped halfway. On the last day, we could choose between paragliding and canoeing. Emir chose paragliding because he wanted to see the canyon from the sky. I would rather stay on the water than fly, so I went canoeing on a calm lake. For me, rafting was the most exciting activity of the week, but canoeing was the most peaceful.
