> Today is 29 October, Republic Day. Our school in Bursa is full of red and white flags. At nine o’clock, all the students line up in the playground. The principal, Ms Ateş, says, “Happy Republic Day, everyone!” Then we sing the National Anthem together. My friend Mert reads a poem about Atatürk. After that, the folk dance club performs a dance from the Black Sea Region. I’m in the club, so I’m a bit nervous, but my family is there and they are proud of me. In the evening, we watch the fireworks in the city square.

1. What colours are the flags at the school?

2. Who is Ms Ateş?

3. What does Mert read?

4. Why is the writer nervous?
