D Challenge: The lost festival drum

Read the story and answer the questions in full sentences. (Hikâyeyi oku, soruları tam cümleyle cevapla.)

> On the morning of the Mardin Youth Festival, Selim was very worried. His big drum wasn't in the music room! The concert was at 7 p.m., and the drum was the most important instrument for his band. Then he saw a small note on the door: "Your drum is safe. Find the first clue under the teacher's desk." The first clue sent him across the schoolyard, through the library and into the old garden. At last, the drum was between two lemon trees, next to a big birthday cake. His classmates were behind the plan because it was Selim's birthday! In the evening, the concert was great. The audience clapped and danced, and Selim played better than ever.

1. Why was Selim worried in the morning?

2. Where was the first clue?

3. Who was behind the plan?

4. How was the concert in the evening?

E Challenge: Create your own treasure hunt

Write five clues and a short ending. (Mahallende ya da okulunda geçen bir hazine avı için beş ipucu ve kısa bir son yaz. Yer edatlarını ve was/were kullan.)

1. Write five treasure hunt clues for a place in your neighbourhood. Use prepositions (under, behind, between, next to, across…). Then write two sentences about the end: Where was the treasure? How were the players?
