> Last month, our class in Trabzon joined an online project with schools in Poland, Denmark and Spain. We called it “One Flag, Many Friends”. On the first day, every student introduced his or her country. Ola from Poland talked about Kraków, a historic city with a beautiful old square. Mads from Denmark showed his town on the map and taught us some Danish words. Lucía from Spain played a traditional song on her guitar. I presented Türkiye and explained our national flag. Everybody liked my photos of the green Black Sea hills. We used English to communicate, and we learned “hello” in every language, too!
