Read the text. Write T (true) or F (false). (Metni oku. Doğru mu, yanlış mı?)

> Yesterday, Dr. Selin Aydın, an expert on future cities, visited our school in Ankara. She showed us pictures of eco-cities. “By 2050, the population of the world will be almost ten billion,” she said. “Cities will need new sources of energy, because one day we are going to run out of coal and oil.” She predicts that most buildings will have solar panels and gardens on their roofs. People won’t drive petrol cars; they will travel in electric buses and flying taxis. Then a student asked, “Will robots be our teachers?” Dr. Aydın smiled. “I don’t think so. Robots will help teachers, but they won’t replace them.”
