A Reading: Our new neighbours

4 × 3 = 12 puan

Read the text and answer the questions. (Metni okuyun ve soruları kısaca cevaplayın.)

A new family moved into the flat next to ours in Bolu last month. Mr. Kaya is a firefighter. He is very tall and strong, and he has a thick black beard. He looks serious, but he is actually friendly and polite. Mrs. Kaya is a vet. She is shorter than her husband and she has short blonde hair. She is very outgoing: on the first day, she knocked on every door and gave everyone homemade cookies.

They have a son, Efe. He is eight, so he is younger than me. He is a bit naughty, but he is cute and very clever. He already knows the names of all the planets! I think the Kayas are the nicest neighbours in our building.

Sude

D Reading: Cheetahs in danger

4 × 3 = 12 puan

Read the text and answer the questions. (Metni okuyun ve soruları kısaca cevaplayın.)

> Cheetahs are the fastest land animals in the world. They can run at 110 kilometres per hour, but only for a short time. They usually hunt during the day, because lions and hyenas hunt at night.
> A hundred years ago, there were about 100,000 cheetahs in Africa and Asia. Today, there are fewer than 8,000. Why? Farmers killed many cheetahs, because the cats attacked their animals. People also destroyed their habitat to build farms and roads.
> Now, many organisations help cheetahs. They give farmers special dogs to protect their sheep, so the farmers don't need to kill cheetahs. Many of these dogs are Kangals from Türkiye!

1. How fast can cheetahs run?

2. Why do cheetahs usually hunt during the day?

3. Why did farmers kill cheetahs?

4. How do organisations help cheetahs?

E Reading: A boat tour

4 × 3 = 12 puan

Read the text and write the names of the wild animals. (Metni okuyun ve boşluklara doğru vahşi hayvan adlarını yazın.)

> Hi, I'm Okan, a nature guide in the Kızılırmak Delta in Samsun. Every morning I take visitors on a boat tour. Yesterday was a lucky day! First, we saw a group of pelicans. They were catching fish with their big beaks. Then an otter swam next to our boat. It is a shy animal, so this was a great surprise.
> Near the tall grass, a grey heron stood on one leg for a long time. In the afternoon, we walked in the forest and saw a wild boar with her babies. Finally, an owl watched us from a tree before sunset.

1. The _____ were catching fish with their big beaks.
2. A shy _____ swam next to the boat.
3. A grey _____ stood on one leg for a long time.
4. Before sunset, an _____ watched the visitors from a tree.

F Writing: A wildlife poster

1 × 20 = 20 puan

1. Prepare the text of a poster about two wild animals. Describe them (habitat, food, one interesting fact) and write two suggestions to protect wildlife. (6–7 sentences)

G Reading: TV at our house

4 × 3 = 12 puan

Read the text and answer the questions. (Metni okuyun ve soruları kısaca cevaplayın.)

In our house, everybody has a different favourite TV programme. My dad never misses the news; he watches it every evening at eight. My mum prefers cooking shows to talk shows, because she likes trying new recipes. My older brother Onur loves football, so he always watches the matches on Saturday nights. My grandmother usually watches a soap opera in the afternoon; she can’t wait for the new episode every day!
And me? I prefer documentaries to sitcoms. I think documentaries are more interesting, because I learn new things about animals and the world. We only have one TV, so sometimes we fight for the remote control!

1. When does the dad watch the news?

2. Why does the mum prefer cooking shows?

3. What does the grandmother watch in the afternoon?

4. Why does the writer prefer documentaries?
