OUR ELDERS’ STORIES – a class project by Kerem Şahin, 7-D

Kerem: Grandpa, where were you born?

Grandpa Hüseyin: I was born in a village near Kars in 1954. I grew up there with my five sisters.

Kerem: Did you go to school in the village?

Grandpa: Yes, but only to primary school. There wasn’t a secondary school in our village, so I walked to the next town every day. It took an hour!

Kerem: Why did you move to İstanbul?

Grandpa: I moved there in 1971 to find a job. I worked in a bakery for ten years. I was alone in the city at first, and I missed my family a lot.

Kerem: When did you open your own bakery?

Grandpa: In 1983. I owned it for thirty years. Your grandmother and I raised three children in the flat above that shop!

Kerem: Did you ever win a prize?

Grandpa: Ha! Yes, once. In 1995 my simit won a prize at a city festival.

1. When and where was Grandpa Hüseyin born?

2. Why did he walk to the next town every day?

3. Why did he move to İstanbul?

4. How long did he own his bakery?

5. What happened in 1995?
