> My name is Damla, and I live in Edirne. Every year, my favourite celebration is Hıdrellez. It is a spring festival, and people celebrate it on the night of 5 May and on 6 May. People believe that spring and good luck arrive with Hıdrellez.
> The preparations start a few days before. My mum and my aunts cook a lot of food: stuffed vine leaves, lamb, and special bread. On the evening of 5 May, thousands of people go to the big field near the Tunca River. There is live music everywhere. People light small fires, and young people jump over them. We dance, eat and talk with our neighbours until late at night.
> The best part for me is making a wish. First, you write or draw your wish on a small piece of paper. Then, you tie it to a rose tree. Finally, you wait and hope it comes true! Last year I drew a house with a big garden.
> My family attends the festival every year because it is a family tradition. My grandmother loves it. She says, “Hıdrellez brings people together.”
