Last year Defne moved from İzmir to Trabzon because of her father’s new job. On her first day at the new school, she felt lonely and shy. During the break, a girl with curly hair came to her desk and offered her half of her simit. Her name was Ece. They soon found out that they both loved drawing comics, so they joined the art club together.

Now Defne and Ece are close friends. They share their secrets, and they never gossip about each other. When Defne broke her arm in March, Ece brought her the homework every day and helped her with maths. Ece is very laid-back and funny, so Defne always laughs when they are together. ‘A true friend is someone you can count on,’ says Defne. ‘Ece always backs me up.’

> Hi, I'm Kerem and I'm fourteen. I live in Eskişehir with my parents and my little sister. On weekdays I get up at seven and go to school by tram. After school, I usually do my homework first, but I also chat online with my friends for half an hour. I'm keen on basketball, so I train with the school team on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
> At the weekend, my friends and I often ride our bikes along the Porsuk River. I enjoy listening to rock music, but I can't stand rap; I think it's too noisy. My sister prefers pop music, so we sometimes argue about the music in the car! I rarely go shopping because I find it boring. On Sunday evenings, I play chess with my dad.
