> Kaan and Batu have been friends since primary school. They live in the same building in Samsun, and they walk to school together every morning. Last week they had a big argument. Kaan borrowed Batu's favourite comic book and lost it on the bus. Batu was very angry and didn't talk to him for three days.
> Kaan felt terrible. He saved his pocket money and bought a new copy of the comic. Then he wrote a note: 'I'm really sorry. I was careless. You can count on me next time.' Batu read the note and smiled. 'It's OK, mate,' he said. 'Everybody makes mistakes.' Now they get on well with each other again, and Kaan is more careful with other people's things.
