> Hazal lives in Çanakkale, and her best friend Sofia lives on the Greek island of Lesbos. They met three years ago at a summer camp for young musicians. Hazal plays the violin and Sofia plays the flute, so they had a lot in common from the first day.
> Now they can't see each other very often, but they keep in touch. They write long letters every month, and they video chat every Sunday. They share their favourite songs and talk about their schools. Last summer, Sofia and her family visited Çanakkale. Hazal showed her the Trojan Horse, and they ate ice cream by the sea. 'Distance doesn't matter in a true friendship,' Hazal says. 'I know I can always count on Sofia.'

D Reading: A young chess player

4 × 4 = 16 puan

Read the text and answer the questions. (Metni okuyun ve soruları kısa cevaplarla yanıtlayın.)

Eymen is thirteen and he lives in Konya. He is one of the best young chess players in the city. On weekdays he goes to school until 3.30 p.m. Then he has a quick snack and practises chess online for an hour. Twice a week he goes to the chess club, where his coach gives him difficult puzzles.
Eymen enjoys chess, but he isn’t only interested in chess. He is also keen on cycling, and he rides his bike in the park on Sunday mornings. He can’t stand loud places, so he rarely goes to shopping malls. His favourite type of music is classical music. ‘It helps me concentrate,’ he says.

1. How long does Eymen practise chess online after school?

2. What does his coach give him at the chess club?

3. Why does Eymen rarely go to shopping malls?

4. Why does Eymen like classical music?
