A Reading: My first flight

Dear Diary,
Today was the most amazing day of my life! I flew over Ölüdeniz with a paragliding pilot named Ahmet. We drove up Babadağ Mountain in a jeep. At the top, Ahmet checked our equipment and explained what to do. I had to run towards the edge of the mountain with him. My legs were shaking because I was so nervous. Then suddenly my feet left the ground, and we were in the air!
We flew for about thirty minutes. The Blue Lagoon looked like a painting below us. Ahmet let me take photos with a special camera. The landing on the beach was softer than I expected. Paragliding is definitely more thrilling than any sport I've tried. But next time, I'll have a smaller breakfast!

Göbeklitepe, near Şanlıurfa, is one of the oldest temples in the world. It is about 12,000 years old — older than Stonehenge and the Egyptian pyramids!

Opening hours: 8 a.m.–7 p.m. (summer), 8.30 a.m.–5 p.m. (winter)

Tickets: Buy online or at the visitor centre. Students under 18 with ID enter free.

How to get there: Take a shuttle bus from the city centre. It takes about 20 minutes.

D Reading: A school trip to Amasra

4 × 3 = 12 puan

Read the text and answer the questions. (Metni okuyun ve soruları kısa cevaplarla yanıtlayın.)

> Last weekend, our class went on a school trip to Amasra, a small town on the Black Sea coast. We left Ankara at 7 a.m., and the journey took about four hours. First, we visited the old castle and walked along its walls. The view of the sea was breathtaking. Then, our guide told us about the town's long history. For lunch, we ate fried fish in a restaurant by the harbour. In the afternoon, we went to the souvenir shops. Most of my friends bought small wooden spoons, because Amasra is famous for wooden crafts. I have been to many coastal towns, but in my opinion, Amasra is the most charming one.

2. What did they do first in Amasra?
