17. Feeling good is not only about being free from illness. Experts say a few small habits can make a big difference in a teenager’s life. First, try to sleep eight to ten hours a night and turn off screens at least an hour before bed. Second, spend time outdoors; even a short walk can boost your mood. Third, stay in touch with friends and family, because talking about your feelings reduces stress. Finally, be kind to yourself. Nobody is perfect, and making mistakes is part of growing up.
