> ARE YOU READY FOR AN EARTHQUAKE?
> Türkiye is on active fault lines, so earthquakes are a part of our lives. Scientists can't predict exactly when an earthquake will happen, but we can be prepared. Last week, our school organized an earthquake drill with a rescue team from AFAD. When the alarm rang, we dropped to the floor, covered our heads and held on to our desks. After the shaking stopped, we evacuated the building quietly and met in the school garden.
> Then the rescue team showed us an emergency kit. Every family should prepare one and keep it near the door. It should include water, food, a first aid kit, a flashlight, a whistle and extra batteries. If you are trapped and blow your whistle, rescuers will find you more easily. I'm not worried about earthquakes any more, because I know what to do.
