Reading

One little ant is hungry. “I am hungry!” she says. She finds one big apple. “Yum!”

Two ants come. “We are hungry!” Three ants come. Four, five, six ants come. “We are hungry too!”

Seven, eight, nine ants come. Now there are nine hungry ants. Can they eat the big apple? No! It is too big. Push, push, push! The apple doesn't move.

Then ant number ten comes. She is very, very small. “Can I help?” she asks. Ten ants push. One, two, three… Roll! The apple rolls home. Ten happy ants eat the big apple. Crunch, crunch, crunch! “Thank you, little ant!”
