Reading

Benny is Arda's little brown hamster. One morning, Arda looks into Benny's cage. It is empty! “Mum! Dad! Benny isn't here!” The whole family starts a big house hunt.

First, they look in the living room. There is a sofa, two armchairs and a big bookcase. Dad looks behind the sofa. There are three coins and an old sock, but there isn't a hamster. Then they go into the kitchen. Mum checks under the table and next to the fridge. There are some biscuit crumbs on the floor. “Benny loves crumbs!” says Arda. But there isn't a hamster.

In the bathroom, there is only a yellow rubber duck in the bath. In the bedroom, Arda's sister Su looks inside the wardrobe and between the pillows. No Benny!

Everyone is tired, so they sit down in the hall. Suddenly, Su points at Dad's big slipper next to the door. It is moving! Arda picks it up, and there is Benny, sleeping in a soft, warm bed. “Well,” laughs Dad, “now I know why my slipper is always warm!”
