> Hi! I'm Nehir and I'm fourteen. Like most teenagers, I love my phone, but last month I decided to try something different: a "screen-free weekend" with my family. On Saturday morning, we turned off our phones and put them in a box. At first, it felt strange. I wanted to check my messages every ten minutes!
> Then my dad suggested cooking together. We made stuffed peppers and a delicious yoghurt dessert. In the afternoon, I called my grandmother on our home phone and we chatted for an hour. On Sunday, my friend Ece joined us for a picnic. I realized I could have fun without the Internet. Now we have a screen-free day every month.

1. Nehir's family turned off their phones for the weekend. ( )
