> Last Thursday, Burak was on the bus on his way home from school. When he stood up to get off, he saw a brown wallet under the seat. He opened it and found some money, a bank card and an ID card. The name on the card was Nermin Arslan. Burak didn't know what to do. His friend Ege said, "Keep the money. Nobody will know." But Burak didn't agree. He took the wallet to the police station near his house. Two days later, the phone rang. It was Mrs. Arslan. She was an old woman, and she was very happy. "My husband's photo was in that wallet," she said. "It is the only photo I have of him." She invited Burak and his family for tea and gave him a big box of baklava.
