> Last summer, my cousin Yiğit and I went to Köprülü Canyon with our parents to try rafting for the first time. Before we started, our guide gave us helmets and life jackets and explained the safety rules. At first, I was really nervous because the water looked very fast. But after ten minutes, I started to enjoy it. We screamed and laughed every time a big wave hit the boat! In the middle of the tour, we stopped and swam in the cold, clear water. Yiğit fell into the river once, but he was wearing his life jacket, so he was fine. It was the most thrilling day of our holiday.
