> Bora (16), Ankara: I love city life. Everything is close: shopping centres, cinemas, concerts. I can take the metro anywhere. The only problem is the traffic — sometimes it takes me an hour to get home. / Zehra (15), a village near Ordu: I live on a hazelnut farm with my family. My school is small and there are only twelve students in my class. There isn’t a cinema, but I can swim in the river and pick fruit from the trees. In winter it is quite boring because it gets dark early and there isn’t much to do.

1. What does Bora complain about?

   a) The weather. b) The traffic. c) The noise. d) The prices.

2. How many students are there in Zehra’s class?

   a) Ten. b) Twenty. c) Fifteen. d) Twelve.

3. What is NOT in Zehra’s village?

   a) Fruit trees. b) A school. c) A cinema. d) A river.

4. When does Zehra find village life boring?

   a) At weekends. b) On holidays. c) In winter. d) In summer.
