> Last year, my family had a big argument about housework. My mum was doing almost everything, and she was exhausted. One evening, while we were watching TV, she turned it off and said, “We need to talk.” We made a family chore chart that night. Now my dad does the shopping and the cooking on weekdays. My older brother is responsible for the laundry, and I clean the bathroom and take out the rubbish. My mum cooks at weekends because she enjoys it. At first, my brother complained a lot, but now he admits that our home is a happier place. We even have more time to do things together.

1. Why did the family have an argument?

   a) The TV was broken. b) Dad didn’t like cooking.

   c) The brother was too noisy. d) Mum was doing most of the housework.

2. What were they doing when Mum turned off the TV?

   a) Watching TV. b) Eating dinner. c) Doing homework. d) Cleaning the house.

3. Who does the laundry now?

   a) Mum. b) Dad. c) The writer. d) The older brother.

4. How does the brother feel now?

   a) He wants to move out. b) He does nothing at home.

   c) He thinks home is a happier place. d) He still hates the chart.

E Rules in my home

Write your answer. (Cevabınızı yazın. Örnek cevap, cevap anahtarındadır.)
