> Did you know that it takes about 2,700 litres of water to make one cotton T-shirt? Most of this water is used to grow cotton, a plant which needs a lot of water. In some regions, rivers and lakes have become smaller because so much water is taken for cotton farms. The fashion industry also produces a large amount of waste: millions of tonnes of clothes are thrown away every year. What can we do? We can buy fewer clothes, choose second-hand items, repair what we have and swap clothes with friends. Small changes in our shopping habits can make a big difference.
