> Review: The Last Lighthouse ★★★★☆ — Set on a small island in the Aegean, The Last Lighthouse tells the story of Nilüfer, a retired lighthouse keeper who picks up a mysterious radio signal one stormy night. The director, whose previous film was a comedy, surprises us with a quiet, beautifully shot mystery. The performances are strong, especially that of the young actor playing Nilüfer's grandson. The film is slow at the beginning, and some viewers may find the first half hour a little dull. However, the final scenes are so moving that the audience at our screening applauded. Don't miss it when it comes to cinemas next month.
